

Apply by Sept 16, 2016

entrepreneurship.asu.edu/poder

Empowered to solve issues in your community

Apply entrepreneurship skills to solve community issues

Learn personal success strategies

Use technology to maximize your positive impact on the world

Gain access to competitions awarding $5,000, $3,000 and $2,000 to launch or grow your project

Poder is a 5-week social entrepreneurship training program offered at no cost to South Mountain Community College students by Arizona State University, supported by grant funding from the Cisco corporate advised fund at Silicon Valley Community Foundation. Students from all majors are encouraged to apply.

Poder students are eligible to compete in the Cisco Innovation Challenge for awards to launch or grow social entrepreneurship projects

For more information
(480) 884-1546 | poder@asu.edu

