

Flowchart for Working with Disruptive Students

South Mountain Community College

The first step in addressing student conduct issues is to outline clear classroom behavioral expectations within each course syllabus (e.g., Positive Learning Environment statement).

