

FREE Leadership Training!
Find out how you can develop your leadership skills to become a successful leader:

You have the opportunity to develop leadership skills at South Mountain Community College.

The Student Life & Leadership Office operates on the premise that college is an experience designed to help students develop knowledge and skills for continued growth.

SMCC clubs and organizations are here for you.

For further information, contact the Student Life & Leadership Office at (602) 243-8065

7050 S. 24th Street
Phoenix, AZ 85042
www.southmountaincc.edu

**Clubs inactive at this time.*

*Amigos Latinos (ESL)- No Advisor at this time.

Provides cultural, social and educational awareness among English as a Second Language (ESL) students by working with school organizations and the community.

*Athletic Club- No advisor at this time.

Builds camaraderie among athletes involved in any sports offered, between athletes and the student body, and between athletes and the community.

*Christian Club- No Advisor at this time.

Provides activities students including fellowship, Bible study, discussion, social life opportunities, witness and ministry.

*Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (LDS)

No Advisor at this time.

Supports discussions of LDS topics and fun social activities.

Clubs &
Organizations
2013-2014

Helping You Climb Higher!

Behavioral Health Services (BHS)-Advisor Steven Isham @ 602-243-8065

To promote a network of information and knowledge to achieve an Associates Degree to Behavioral Health Services students and workforce assistance in the Behavioral Health field. Students will also participate in school sponsored activities and volunteer opportunities.

Bilingual Student Nursing Association (BSNA)-Advisor-Rochelle Rivas@ 602-243-8256

BSNA fosters leadership development through networking with health professionals and institutions, ensuring success of all nursing students. In the nursing program. BSNA is dedicated to developing cultural awareness, community networking, and utilizing both the Spanish and English language to contribute to underprivileged communities by promoting health care services.

Black Student Union (BSU)-Advisor-Delbert Cole @ 602-305-5686

The purpose of the Black Student Union, BSU, is to promote activities of common interest, as well as cultural and educational benefits for all students.

Business Club-Advisor-Bruce McHenry @ 602-305-5810

The Business Club provides personal and professional networking and business education opportunities for all SMCC students.

Circle of Nations-Advisor-Lora Largo @ 602-243-8345 & Co-Advisor-Laura Smith @ 602-305-5683
Members help Native-American Indian students reach their educational goals and develop leadership skills by promoting cultural awareness and fostering relationships among clubs, campuses, MCCC and the college community.

Club Teach-Advisor-Eufemia Amabisca @602-243-8019

Supports future educators and provides study/support groups. The organization also recruits and unifies future and present educators involved within the community and school.

Q & A, (Queer and All)-Advisor-Julie Holston @ 602-243-8267

Q & A supports members of the gay, bisexual, lesbian, transgender and questioning community along with their friends, family members, and straight allies. Mission is to create a place where individual values and beliefs are welcome and respected. Membership is open to students of any sexual orientation.

International Friends Club-Advisor-Margie Greenhut @ 602-305-5648

In alliance with the Student Life & Leadership Office, International Friends will provide a place where students can exchange ideas, cultures, and experiences.

MEChA-Advisor-Loida Gutierrez @ 602—305-5771

Instills in Chicano students a sense of pride and awareness of their heritage and culture. Also provides counseling and tutoring whenever possible.

Medical Scrub Club-Yvette Espinosa @ 602-243-8090

To motivate, share knowledge, and provide guidance for South Mountain Community College students who possess an interest in the medical field.

Minority Male Achievement-Co-Advisors: Buddy Cheeks @ 602-243-8065, Christopher Erran, & Mark Lopez

To stimulate a strong interest in the retention and successful degree completion of minority male students. Also provide fellowship among the male students of color and promote academic success and academic advice for and among the members.

Phi Theta Kappa (Honor Society)-Advisor-Amy MacPherson @ 602-305-57147 & Nancy Deegan @ 602-305-5877

Assures that academic excellence among students is nurtured and a climate of continuing education is maintained. Alpha Eta Delta Chapter coordinates scholarship and service programs based on annual themes, leadership, fellowship; travel opportunities available to active members.

Think South Mountain (TSM)-Advisor-Matt Cooper @ 602-305-5784

Mission: Help TSM club members, SMCC students and the wider South Mountain community in open conversations with people of all viewpoints and walks of life.

PrePharmacy Club-Advisor-Erica Hallum @ 602-243-8156

Prepares SMCC students for admission into pharmacy school. Members are encouraged to be involved in the community through volunteer opportunities. To help members strive academically, we also encourage support and social interaction through club meetings and social gatherings.

SHPE-Advisor-Time Frank @ 602-243-8042

Promotes a sense of community among students interested in engineering at SMCC by providing opportunities to interact with others of similar interests. This club is affiliated with the national SHPE organization and many of the club members attend regional and national SHPE conferences. It is open to students of all ethnic backgrounds.

Spirit Club-Advisor-Lupe King @ 602-243-8201 & Calvin DeVoll @ 602-305-5834

Supports the school with high standards, create school spirit, pride, and give support to the SMCC student body and the community.

Spotlight Productions (Drama Club)-Advisor-Julie Holston @ 602-243-8207

Promotes theatre on the South Mountain Community College campus and in the community. Also creates an environment in which students can explore opportunities in theatre. Membership is open to any student enrolled at SMCC interested in theatre.

Veterans Club-Advisor-Michael Burtch @ 602-305-5787

SMCC's Veterans Club welcomes veterans from all branches of our Armed Forces who have served during times of peace and times of war. The club links veterans and their family members from all branches of military service. The club supports veterans by encouraging lifestyle management principles that contribute to success with their academic, community, spiritual and emotional needs. Such success will lead them to become contributing citizens for their professional and civic achievement.