BILINGUAL NURSES WANTED

The Bilingual Nursing Fellowship Program (BNFP) is designed to increase the number of nurse graduates who speak, read and write English and Spanish fluently.

BNFP is a collaboration between South Mountain Community College, Phoenix College, Gateway Community College and ASU. It is anticipated that each Fellow will complete an AAS in nursing and obtain a nursing license within three years after acceptance into the program. A BSN option is also available with ASU.

You must attend one informational session to receive an application. No RSVP is required.

Information session dates:
June 8 & 22 | 5:00 – 6:30 p.m.
July 6 & 20 | 5:00 – 6:30 p.m.

The informational sessions will be held at SMCC campus in CB-301. Please arrive early, as space is limited.
