

Annotated Bibliography of LGBTQ+ Discrimination

Briannan Roman

English 102

Gomez, Gloria Rebecca, Sievers, Caitlin, Arizona Mirror, September 29, 2022. “Arizona

Students Walkout in Protest of New Anti-LGBTQ Laws.” Arizona Mirror, Accessed 7th

February 2023.

- Arizona students protest against Anti-LGBTQ+ laws
- “Teachers are often the only people students with homophobic parents can talk to, and this law shatters that,” Yates said” (Gomez & Sievers, para. 19).
- Effective due to pathos

WIGGINS, CHRISTOPHER. “SAVE THE CHILDREN. (Cover Story).” Advocate, no.

1122, July 2022, pp. 20–29. EBSCOhost, Accessed. March 23rd, 2023.

- Conservative rhetoric dehumanizing LGBTQ+ individuals
- “They were more focused on these made-up motherfucking bogeymen than on the actual...threats that literally kill children.” (Wiggins, para. 16).
- Effective due to pathos

Kehoe, Jill. “Anti-LGBTQ Hate: An Analysis of Situational Variables.” Journal of Hate Studies, vol. 16, no. 1, Jan. 2020, pp. 21–34. EBSCOhost, Accessed April 6th, 2023.

- Anti-LGBTQ hate is not the same
- “NIBRS found that 81.69% of victim knew their offender, NCVS found that 64.47% knew their offender, and NCAVP found that 57.86% knew their offender” (Kehoe, para. 29).
- Both effective & ineffective

Casey, Logan S., et al. “Discrimination in the United States: Experiences of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, and Queer Americans.” Health Services Research, vol. 54, Dec. 2019, pp. 1454–66. EBSCOhost, Accessed April 1st, 2023.

- LGBTQ+ discrimination contributes to poor health
- “In the context of institutional discrimination, 18 percent of LGBTQ adults reported they have avoided seeking health care for themselves or family members due to anticipated discrimination, while 16 percent reported discrimination in clinical encounters” (HSR, para. 22).
- Effective due to logos

Comparative Narrative

- Scholarly vs. news differences
- Consensus among all four sources
- People fear to show their true selves
- Sign petitions/protest

Thank you!

Let's make a change

<https://chng.it/Pb75SmpfSB>